PROPOSALS FOR COAL

PROPOSALS for furnishing coal for the Macoupin County court house, jail, poor house and city pumpers, will be received at the offices of the city clerk, on the first floor of the court house, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., for the court house and jail, to be delivered at said buildings. That for the poor house, at Green's switch, and that for the city pumpers, as ordered by the quantity required, will probably be about 20 tons. The committee reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

O, Peaches!

The peach originated in Persia and Northern India, and is of the same genus as the almond. The nectarine differs from the peach only in being smooth while the peach is downy. It is a mere variety, probably produced and assuredly preserved by cultivation. The free-stone peach of the French is their peach, while the cling stone is their nectarine. A remarkable variety, of Chinese origin, has the fruit compressed and flattened with almost evergreen leaves. The peach is cultivated widely in Southern Europe, in many parts of the East, in South America and Australia, though it has never, it is believed attained the perfection of the fruit in the United States. New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Ohio raise superb peaches, and have often orchards containing from 20,000 to 25,000 trees. The quantity of dried peaches is reported to be steadily increasing, while peach brandy is diminishing. Peach water, obtained by bruising the leaves of the tree, mixing the pulp with water, and distilling, is not only employed for flavoring, but in medicine as a sedative and vermifuge.

"SHOULD Garfield be elected President, I will guarantee that the next four years will be the most prosperous in all kinds of manufacture and trade that this country has ever known." So remarked one of Chicago's most conservative and successful business men, in a private conversation. "But," he added, "the election of Hancock and a Democratic Congress, with the results that would be likely to follow, would have the effect to cause a serious setback; we wouldn't know what to expect; capital would be afraid of the future." Thoughtful men generally see it in that light.

The I. D. and S. Railway has been in operation six months between Indianapolis and Decatur, and the earnings of the road will pay the operating expenses and leave a sufficient sum within $5,000 to pay the interest on its mortgage bonds. The earnings of the road for the month of August show a gain of $3,754 over those of the corresponding month of 1879, but this company operates fifty one miles more of road than last year.—Tuscola Journal.

In 1868 Hancock was a prominent candidate for the Democratic nomination for President, and he endorsed the Democratic platform of that year which declared the constitutional amendments "revolutionary, unconstitutional and void." Now he declares they must be enforced.

GARFIELD AND ARTHUR

"The Boys in Blue."

TO-NIGHT!

at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of forming a marching company of "Boys in Blue." Let there be a full attendance of all interested in the success of the straight ticket. Don't fail to come.

COMMITTEE.

A WABASH employee named Samuel Findley, whose home is at Rock Island, Ill., came near being killed this morning between 6 and 7 o'clock. Sam is a young man of more than ordinary intelligence, and like many other people, hankers after apples. While on his way to work this morning he passed near a gentleman's orchard, directly east of Chambers, Berlin & Quinlan's check rorer establishment and north of the Wabash track. Sam noticed some apples lying on the ground in the enclosure, and he stepped through an opening in the hedge fence, to get one or more of them to satisfy his longing for the same. He was in the act of reaching for the forbidden fruit, when bang went a shot gun, and Sam skipped, forgetting all about the apples, and carrying away four or five small bird shot which riddled his silk cap in as many places and lodged in his head. Sam says the man who fired the shot, whose name he does not know, followed him down the track for some distance with the gun in his hand, but did not fire at him again. The would-be-apple pilferer is not seriously hurt. He may thank his lucky stars that he didn't get the full charge.

He came up town this morning with the intention of having his playful assailant arrested for an attempt to commit murder, but whether or not the arrest will be made is yet undecided. The owner of the orchard has doubtless been troubled with thieves, and many people justify him in the act of pepperizing those who would rob him of the result of his labor and care. Apples are but 15 cents a bushel, and they are unusually plentiful this year.

They have been having a notable contest of hose running teams at Council Bluffs, Iowa, and the time is telegraphed to the Chicago Times of Sept. 30th. In a run of 300 yards, (not 200), and lay 300 feet of hose, all connections, three thread nozzle, the Council Bluffs Rescue team, with but eleven men on the rope, made the remarkable time of 44 seconds. This telegram claims to be the best time ever made by any hose company on this or any other continent. The Decatur Rescues, it will be remembered, made a run of 200 yards, put down 300 feet of hose and called time in 41 1/2 seconds. The Council Bluffs and Decatur teams ought to challenge each other for a blood run.

Dr. Stevenson Married.

We have received a copy of the Wabash (Minnesota) Herald, of Sept. 20th from which we clip the following important item of matrimonial news:

MARRIED—At the residence of Mr. A. J. Bent, on Wednesday, Sept. 22, by Rev. Mr. Hobart, of Red Wine, Rev. Dr. Stevenson, of Rushville, Ill., and Mrs. Sarah Reid, of Shelbyville, Ill., sister to Mrs. A. J. Bent.

They started to-day for their new home at Clinton, Ill., at which place Dr. Stevenson has been assigned a charge by the M. E. Conference. The Rev. Dr. and his estimable wife have made many friends during their brief visit to Wabash, who join in wishing them much happiness.

Some years ago the bridegroom was the esteemed pastor of Stapp's Chapel, in this city, and has hosts of fast friends here who join the REPUBLICAN in extending to the newly-married couple their most hearty congratulations. The Doctor succeeds Rev. A. Semple as pastor of the Methodist church at Clinton.

Death of Miss Inez May Kizer.

We are called upon to chronicle the untimely and unexpected death of a highly esteemed young lady, Miss Inez May Kizer, which took place at his mother's residence in Austin on Sept. 21. Deceased was formerly a resident of Decatur, and was known to many of our readers.

A copy of the Austin (Texas) Statesman of Sept. 22d, is before us, containing the announcement of the death of Charles W. Orr, which took place at his mother's residence in Austin on Sept. 21. Deceased was formerly a resident of Decatur, and was known to many of our readers.

LAST evening a brilliant party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman, in honor of the anniversary of the birth of their daughter, Miss Alice Freeman. The occasion was one of supreme enjoyment to the large company present. Miss Alice was the recipient of many valuable presents.

The Stapp's Chapel festival and reception, which has been announced in these columns to occur at the church on to-morrow evening, has been postponed for one week. It will take place, therefore, on Friday evening, Oct. 8th. Don't forget it.

AN ENJOYABLE PARTY.

The Decatur Guards Grand Opening Reception and Ball at the Armory Last Night.

Just as everybody expected the grand opening reception and ball of the season of 1890-91, given by the Decatur Guards, Co. H. 5th Regt., I. N. G., at their spacious armory last night, was very largely attended by a fashionable throng of the youth and beauty of the city. There were perhaps 60 couples present, and in all respects the affair was one of the most notable and brilliant parties ever given in the hall, reflecting great credit upon the superior management of the several efficient committees who vied with each other in contributing toward the success of the occasion. The armory was most tastefully decorated with innumerable flags, drums and portraits, and from the centre of the hall was suspended the costly and beautiful colors of the company, the gift of Decatur ladies. The elegantly furnished reception room was greatly admired by the ladies, for whose exclusive use on festive occasions it is specially fitted up regardless of expense. The members of the company appeared in their new dress uniforms, thus adding largely to the splendor of the scene. The officers' suits attracted particular attention, but the modest captain, W. W. Foster, and Lieutenants Elwood and Wismer, who received many words and smiles of flattering praise from the fair ladies on their fine appearance, bore up under it all with becoming grace. Splendid music was furnished by Prof. Goodman's full orchestra, and the 22 well arranged numbers were danced, including "We Still Live," "Co. K," "Our Guests," "Our Ladies," "Our Silent 9," "U.S. Grant," "P. H. Sheridan," "Oct 5th," "Our Captain," and the "Drum Corps." "The Silent 9" was a charming waltz, and while the merry throng was whirling about the hall, the members of the squad present, (J. M. Elshman, Harry Scanlan, Wm. Conard, Jacob Walters, Frank Curtis, Will Stevenson and Steve Provost), with guns in hand, took up a position near the entrance to the room, and went through Upton's manual of arms silently, without receiving an order from any one. This unexpected exhibition attracted much attention and showed what close application and determination will accomplish.

Between 11 and 12 o'clock it was announced that refreshments would be served at Wood's, and nearly every one present repaired to that popular restaurant, where oysters in all styles were served as promptly as the rush would permit. The oysters were large, fresh, good and plentiful, and stewed, fried and broiled to a turn, being in perfect keeping with the elegance of the fashionable affair.

We congratulate the Guards on the pronounced success of their opening reception and we echo the wish of all present last night, when we say that another invitation ad vice, under their management, will soon be announced. A full list of the happy company present and a description of the many elegant toilets worn by the fair ladies, would consume too much space to-day. The strangers present were Miss Alice Jennings, of Sullivan; Miss Edwards, of Aurora; Miss Mary Kyner, of Macon; Miss Jeanette McFetts, of Jacksonville; Miss Ella Recine, of Chicago; Chas. Armstrong, Chicago; Wm. Cole and Mr. Sheets, of Indianapolis; Mr. Staith, of Bloomington; Dennis and Bernard Bradley, Mr. Osborn and others. Lieutenant O. B. Gorin, in full uniform, represented the Guards, Co. K, 5th Regt. I. N. G.

The Latham Rally.

At Latham yesterday, the Republicans held a very satisfactory and successful open air meeting. Delegations were present from Lincoln, Mt. Pulaski and other points in Logan county, while the adjacent portions of Macon county were also largely represented. The Mt. Pulaski brass band furnished the music, and played with much taste. Hon. D. C. Smith, of Pekin, candidate for congress in the 13th district, spoke in the forenoon, Gen. J. H. Moore, in the afternoon, and Hon. J. G. Cannon in the evening.

There was also a torch-light procession, of very creditable proportions, at night, and the enthusiasm rose to fever heat as the long line of torchbearers, in their handsome uniforms, filed through the crowded streets. Latham is the center of an intensely Democratic neighborhood, but the Republicans there are wide-awake and will give a good account of themselves in November.

DIED.

In this city, at her late residence, No. 69 West Main street, on Friday, Oct. 1, 1890, at 5 a. m., Mrs. ELLIE SHIPMAN, in the 50th year of her age.

The deceased was born in Quebec, Canada, and for nearly half of her life has been a resident of Decatur. She was married twice—first to James Bristow, a Wabash engineer, who met a frightful death at the Union depot 15 years ago by the explosion of a locomotive boiler; and second to Stephen Shipman, who passed away at an advanced age about four or five years ago. The fruit of the first marriage was the birth of three children, Sarah and Lillie Bristow, two estimable young ladies, who have but recently died, and James Bristow, aged about 18 years, who survives his mother. The deceased was a most excellent lady, who had many personal friends in Decatur, and in life was devoted to her children. She was afflicted with lingering consumption, and passed away this morning at dawn calmly and peacefully.

The funeral will take place from the late residence of deceased on to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, at four o'clock. Dr. Goodwin will conduct the services. Friends of the deceased are respectfully invited to attend.
